Volume XXXIV

Golden Anniversary Issue

Co-Editors:

Foreword

In our closing days at LHS we would like to pause and reflect on all the never-to-be forgotten memories of a wonderful year. Within the covers of this volume is the only record of life at LHS in 1971. It is a record of laughter and tears, the grasping for wisdom, the maintaining of grades, the push for athletic excellence, the activities of students seeking new horizons.

We would like to thank Matilda Blevins, Darryl McDaniel, Laban Young, Karene Webb and Patty Sturgill as well as our adviser, Mrs. Young, without whose guidance this yearbook would not have been possible.

It is our hope that within these pages each person can look back and see a year of discovery, both mentally and spiritually.

L.H.S. Majorettes

Participating at Boyd County High School in the National Baton Twirling Association competition were Sheila Thompson, Jr.; Cheri Turner, Sr.; Cindy Painter, Jr.; Karen McGee, Jr.; Susie Price, Jr.; 1970-1971 majorettes, who placed second in the Dance Twirl division.

Enthusiasm, Spirit, and Participation

Attention! Louisa High School proudly presents---the BULLDOGS!

Louisa's Cheerleaders did their part to creat 110% school spirit.

Girl's basketball was a popular fund raising event for the Senior and Sophomore classes.

The annual Sadie Hawkins Dance, sponsored by the Scarlack Staff, was well attended by these handsome Dog Patch residents.

Reflections of a year never to be forgotten.

Louisa's powerful basketball team wows the crowd.

Louisa's explosive offense and mighty defense propelled the Bulldogs to a winning season.

THE BIG SOUND

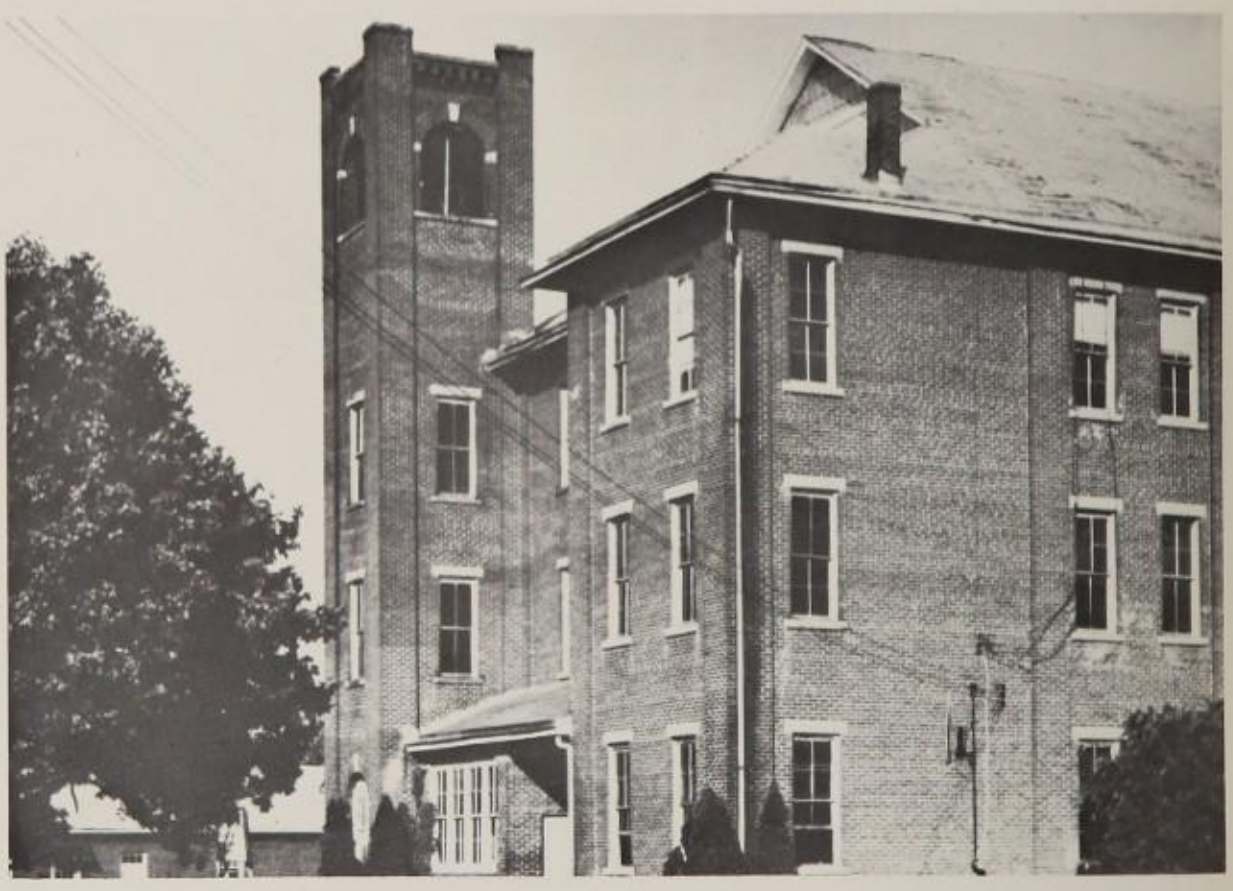
LOUISA HIGH SCHOOL

OF THE BIG SANDY

MARCHING BAND

People to remember; Places to recall

1961 LHS faculty members were l. to r.: Mrs. Ellen Lackey, Mrs. Louise Kingsmore, Mr. Wallace Isham, Mr. Gene Jones, Mrs. Libby Wells, Mrs. Ruth Jackson, Mrs. Katherine White, Mrs. Eleanor Hinkle, Mr. Pete Armstrong, Mr. Bascom Boyd, Mrs. Shirley Chapman, Mr. J. Walter Thompson, Mr. J. I. Cheek, Mr. Burgess Arrington, Mr. R. C. Wells, Mr. Paul Roaden, principal; Mr. Ray Bailey, Mr. Charles Burton, Mr. Frank Webster, Mr. Kenneth Hayes.



The original LHS school building, constructed in 1908, saw five decades of students pass through its corridors. This building was known for its magnificent bell tower. This bell was rung on December 15, 1961 for the first time in thirty years.

The old high school building, home of Kentucky Normal College from 1908 through 1920, was razed in the summer of 1962 to construct the present high school building.

Members of Louisa High School Senior Class.

Special to The Courier-Journal.

LOUISA, Ky., June 5.—Twenty-eight graduates of the Louisa High School received their diplomas at the commencement exercises held Wednesday night. They are, left to right:

Bottom Row—Jessie Carter, Anna Branham, Isabel Lycan, Violet Rice, Anna Van Horn, Olive Davis and Jessie Beatre.

Second Row—Julia Jane Burgess, Eva Waller, Amy Van Horn, Clara Layne, Sophie Roberts, valedictorian; Fannie Skaggs, Edith Adams, Eris Branham.

Third Row—Joe Radcliffe, Edga Vaughan, Hargis Hamilton, Willia Cheek, Earl Kinner, presiden Omar George.

Fourth Row—John Nichols, En ory Skaggs, Ernest Skaggs, Joe M Dowell, Otis Greene and John I Marcum.

The class of 1926 graduated twenty-eight seniors with Sophia Roberts as class valedictorian. This class of graduates was the first LHS class to be attired in formal caps and gowns. William Hutchison Vaughan was the LHS principal, the second LHS principal.

Commencement for the Class of 1928 was held on May 25 in the LHS auditorium. Dr. H. H. Sparks, chairman of the Lawrence County Board of Education, presented diplomas to forty graduating seniors. Class valedictorian was Shirley DeBorde while class salutatorian was Cratis Williams. The 1928 motto was "Find a way or make one." William Hutchison Vaughan was LHS princiapl.

Shown in the above picture is Professor I. Q. Gilmer and his Science Club. "The Science Club is becoming well organized and established. It meets every first and third Wednesday in the month. In the last two meetings it has appropriated fifteen dollars for the laboratory and school building in general. The club will doubtless prove itself a success. The only defeat in the club is that we lack a few members. Of course we want quality instead of quanity, but if there is anyone who would like to join, come around to Professor Gilmer's room shortly after school Wednesday, November 24, 1926."—BIG SANDY NEWS, 1926.

People to remember; Faces to recall 1923-1948

The 1948 Scarlack contained the following paragraph about their team which is pictured at the top right, "This was the second year of football since '41. The team this year was much smaller but was more like the teams of the past. Although it was not one of the greatest that we have had, it will be remembered by all the students, especially the seniors."

In 1927 the Bulldogs played the Ashland Tomcats in a memorable football game. The ASHLAND DAILY INDEPENDENT newspaper had this to say about the spectacle. "On a soggy field with fluries of snow interspersing the bleak afternoon, Ashland High School's Tomcats struck a scoring stride that swept them across the Louisa Bulldogs goal line no less than fifteen times in forty-eight minutes of play yesterday afternoon at Armco Field and ran the final score up to 98-0. It was one of the most complete routs any Tomcat team has ever administered and we'll venture to say the most thorough Louisa High ever suffered.

Averaging better than two points a minute during the afternoon's one-sided performance the Tomcat backfield convinced all present that if it hasn't punch and scoring power it wouldn't be healthy to even attempt to bring any of the Louisa pigskin warriors around to that point of view."

The first basketball team at Louisa High was the 1923-24 team coached by Professor Dorsett.

"The Louisa basketball team went to Williamson, West Virginia last Friday for a game with the Williamson Collegians. One of the boys informs us the score was 60 to nearly 0 in favor of the Collegians. Too bad but we can not hope to win all the games. The Williamson team is very strong."—BIG SANDY NEWS, January 25, 1924.

Andrew F. Janoviezky was the coach of the first Louisa football team in 1923. This team had a record of four wins and one loss.

People to remember
Faces to recall

"Under the direction of Mrs. Kit C. Elswick is one of the most enthusiastic clubs in the school. It is the only musical club the school has. The Baby Grand piano, the Glee Club presented to the school is one of the best in any of the Big Sandy Schools.

The Glee Club has given two complete music-week programs, sponsored plays, given out many nights of entertainment.

The "Glee Club" name was given to this class because the girls were so happy. It really is not a club but a class, there is credit for the work."—THE BIG SANDY NEWS.

These cheerleaders spurred on the athletic teams of 1946, 1947, and 1950. The cheerleading squad of 1946-47 was composed of Mary Stone, Libby Wells, June Nattrass, and Joann Riffe.

The 1950 cheerleading squad was composed of Joan Preston, Joyce Rae Lyons, Wanda Wheeler, Joy Compton, and Corlis Compton.

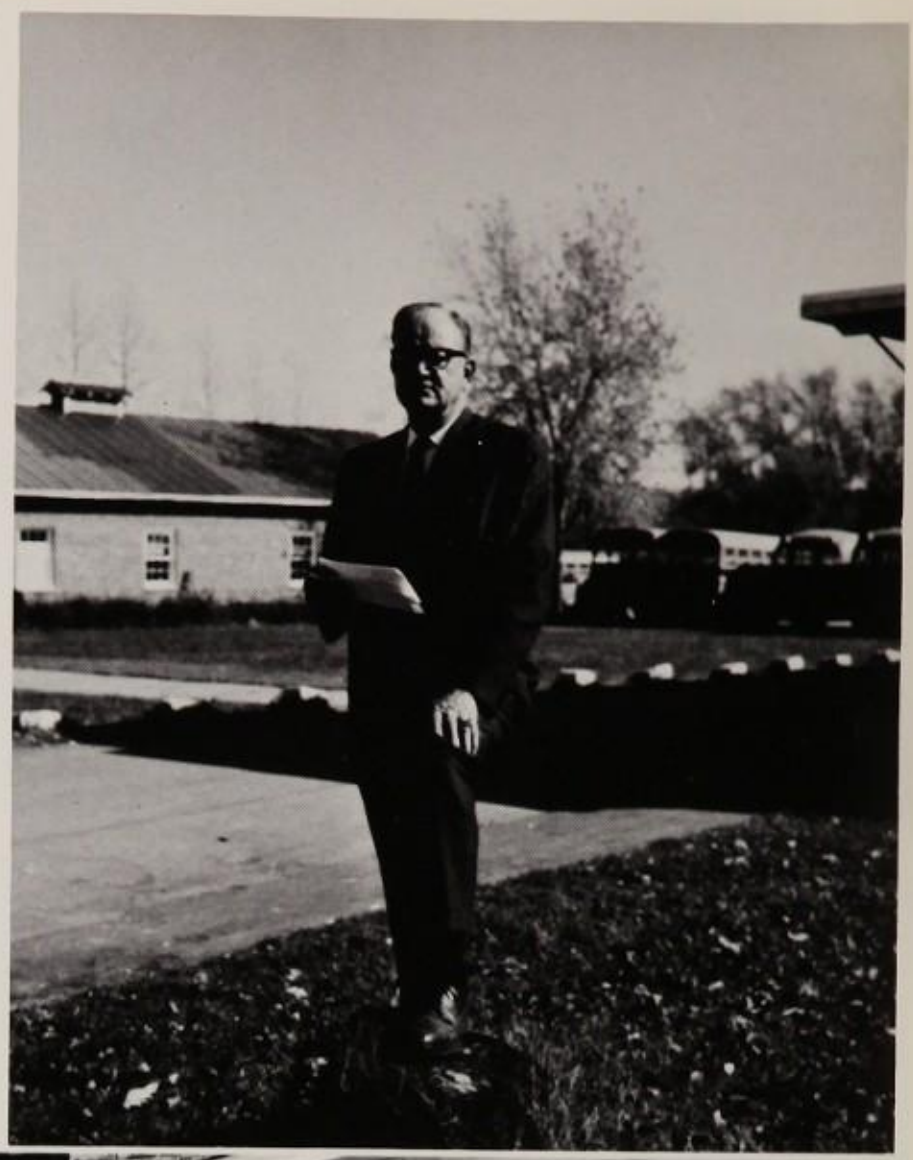
These LHS majorettes led the 1947 marching band.

Academics

"Those who guide our destiny"

A man whose name is synonymous with the word "education" is Lawrence County's Superintendent of Schools, Mr. William A. Cheek.

Education in Lawrence County has been under the auspices of Mr. Cheek for over three decades. Through his diligent efforts many excellent programs, obtained with federal funds, have been initiated in our school system. It is fitting that in this fiftieth year of LHS a special commendation be given Mr. Cheek who has unselfishly devoted his life to the education of Lawrence County Youth.



Superintendent William A. Cheek and members of the Lawrence County Board of Education; Luke Varney, Sr., Earl Elswick, Elizabeth Graham, Edgar Boggs, Jack Hardin are shown discussing the relocable classrooms, obtained with Title I funds, that serve as reading readiness centers for elementary students.

The man who has displayed a valuable role in molding the future of LHS students is our principal, Mr. J. I. Cheek, Western Kentucky University, B.S., University of Kentucky, M.A. Mr. Cheek is to be commended for his outstanding contributions to Louisa High School.

Administrators, Faculty, and Personnel

This year brought a new addition to the LHS administrative staff, with the appointment of Mr. Max Young, Eastern Kentucky University, B.S., M.A., as assistant principal. He assisted Mr. J.I. Cheek in many of his administrative and supervisory duties.

Miss Avanelle Moore, administrative secretary, performs her secretarial duties in a very competent manner.

Senior Favorites

One of the more exciting events of each senior year at Louisa High School is the selection of senior class favorites. Each member of the senior class is given the opportunity of voting for the candidate of his choice.

Traditionally these titles have embodied a combination of such qualities as leadership, popularity, personality, talent, citizenship, as well as good looks.

LHS Chorus

Dressed in patriotic red, white, and blue, the LHS mixed chorus participated in various inter-scholastic activities during the school year. Two classes of mixed chorus met daily and they performed together for the Christmas program, Lawrence County Song Festival, and Baccalaureate. The chorus was under the direction of Mrs. Eleanor Hinkle.

Class officers for second and third period classes were SEATED, l. to r.: Connie Hall, vice-president (3rd); Helen Fraley, president (3rd); Leah Burgess, president (2nd); Don Roberts, treasurer (2nd). STANDING: Scott Thompson, secretary (3rd); Lucille Jackson, secretary (2nd); Beverly Pack, vice-president (2nd); Gene Allen Pack, treasurer (3rd).

Several students attended a choral music workshop in November and were part of the 185-voice chorus to sing at the Paramount Theater in Ashland for EKEA. They are l. to r.: Paul Courtney, John O'Daniel, Lu Anne Wallace, Leah Burgess, Vicki Stewart, Hilda Marcum, Reyna Hammond, Valorie Vanhorn, Vickie Hewlett, Georgie Hensley, Beverly Pack, Bill Ed Johnson.

Janice Compton was accompanist for third period chorus while Leah Burgess accompanied the second period class.

All of the choral groups participated in the annual Christmas program which was attended by a large audience.

On April 30 Louisa hosted the high school chorus from Wayne, West Virginia. After a music reading workshop, the groups performed for one another. Wayne's chorus was directed by Mrs. Hinkle's daughter, Carolyn.

Cheri Turner, Beverly Pack, and Georgie Hensley perform "raindrop" act for Song Festival, "Applachian Spring."

Traditionally the chorus sings two numbers for Baccalaureate. This year's selections were "O Come Let Us Sing Unto the Lord" and "I'll Walk With God."

More seniors than usual were in chorus this year. Their names and the number of years they were in chorus are FIRST ROW, l. to r.: Lucille Jackson–4, Daina Charles–2, Vince Moore–1, Jackie Lemaster–1, Bill Johnson–2, Cheri Turner–2, Beverly Pack–4. SECOND ROW: Judy Coleman–4, Georgie Hensley–4, George Preston–1, Jim Burchett–2, Lu Anne Wallace–2, Vickie Hewlett–4. Latin Club

Latin Club officers, selected by a nominating committee and voted upon by full membership were Beverly Pack, treasurer; Janice Compton, secretary; Sharon Wells, reporter; Mike Armstrong, president; Steve Hinkle, vice-president; Patty Sturgill, historian.

Sophomore Party

The candidates for Sophomore Class princess were Terry Atkinson, Debbie Borders, Patricia Hale, Denise Pennington, Vicki Thompson, and Debbie Ward. The candidates for prince were Joey Carter, Terry Diamond, Mark Hamilton, Richard Lewis, David Sullivan, and Keith Woods. Terry Atkinson and Mark Hamilton were voted princess and prince.

The music for the Sophomore Party was provided by Vince Markin, WKEE disc jockey. The theme of the Sophomore Party was "Three Coins in a Fountain."

The Sadie Hawkins Dance

Chosen on the basis of originality of costume design was Susie Price, this year's Miss Sadie Hawkins.

Serving as a yearbook staff hostess at the Sadie Hawkin's Dance, Patty Sturgill supplies the guests with "spirits."

This year's Prom theme was "Age of Aquarius." Appropriate music was provided by the Morehead Stage Band featuring, "The Intimate Cyrcle."

These LHS students seem to be enjoying the music.

Library Aides

These senior girls, Susie Horn, Darlen Pack, Rose Saulsbury, and Sheliah Baker, volunteered a minimum of one hour each day assisting Mrs. Elaine Butler, librarian, in cataloging, shelving, checking out books, and arranging bulletin board displays.

1971 Scarlack Staff

Serving as the co-editors of the 1971 Scarlack were Vicki Stewart and Don Hillman who were honored by receiving The Marguerite McLaughlin Memorial Certificate for outstanding service in Scholastic Yearbook Production, Good Citizenship and High Scholarship.

The Scarlack Staff engaged in various fund-raising events such as candy sales, and the sponsorship of the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance.

Although the 1971 Scarlack Staff was lacking in numbers, we feel the 1971 yearbook is the best ever.

This year, for the first time, the Scarlack was staffed by three Junior members. It is thought that their experience will be a valuable asset to next year's staff. Laban Young served as staff photographer, while Patty Sturgill and Karene Webb worked on layout and copy.

Darryl McDaniel served in a dual capacity as Sports Editor and Business Manager. Assisting in typing and handling the proofreading was Matilda Blevins.

"The yearbook's a great invention, The school gets all the fame, The printer gets all the money, and the staff gets all the blame."
